TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Mrs. Helen G. Prince, formerly clerk in the office of the controller of the Treasury and one of those who went from the "marrying desk" in the room of the chief clerk into the state of matrimony, was a visitor during the week. She looked at the old desk where she had sat long enough to prove its efficacy as an agent of Dan Cupid and warned her successor, Mr. Justice, that he was in peril of his liberty. Miss Hatty G. Brown of Havana, Cuba. sister of Mrs. Prince, accompanied her and suggested that she might apply for the desk as soon as Mr. Justice had proven its merits and would vacate. Mrs. Helen G. Prince, formerly clerk proven its merits and would vacate.

Plans for a coaching school, as well as a regular summer playground, were completed at a meeting of the Parentcompleted at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Johnson-Powell School at the last named school Friday evening. The summer school is to open Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, and Robert L. Haycock, supervising principal, of which these schools form a part, is to be in his office in the Powell hetween 9 a.m. and noon Tuesday and the following days of the week in order to meet applicants for position as teacher of the coaching school.

The association appropriated $300 Friday night to carry on the playground, which, in addition to the regular play activities and coaching school, is to give opportunities for learning carpentry, sewing and weaving. So enthusiastic were the members that they appointed a special committee headed by C. Meivin Sharpe to raise funds for a second teacher, to meet the demand which has been so heavy as to anticipate the need for two teachers.
